CROWD STATION TO SEE WOUNDED FROM LOOS FIGHT

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, Eng.—The arrival of the first wounded from the battle of Loos, following directly upon the first exciting news of the British advance in the West, was a dramatic incident of a London night. In a vast and gloomy railway station, which had as few lights going as were needed to show the way without betraying the place to a possible Zeppelin, a silent crowd had gathered. Suburban and overland trains were steaming in and pulling out, porters rushing about with trunks and bags on hand trucks, civilian passengers asking about platforms or arguing with the women inspectors, who are not yet entirely familiar with their duties.

The crowd which waited silently and patiently in the midst of this bustle was composed of relatives of men at the front. Shortly before midnight, a train bearing the wounded drew up at a side platform. The gates swung open and the wounded, in torn and powder stained khaki, heads bandaged, arms in slings or on crutches appeared, followed by a procession of stretchers.

After a rough crossing, the wounded, usually so cheery, had no cheers left in them, and the crowd felt no desire to cheer. Those able to walk were put into motor-cars and buses, and the men prostrate on stretchers were lifted into ambulances.

The watchers crowded up as close as the police would allow, looking for familiar faces. But it was against orders for the wounded to talk. Soon they were whisked away into the darkened streets of London, and the crowd dispersed.

BONDS FACE VALUE $11,239,000 WERE SOLD FOR $2,068,000

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 15.—Stocks and bonds of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway company having a face value of $11,239,000 were sold at auction here for $2,068,000.

They were bought by Isaac Orr of the St. Louis Union Trust company, trustee for the bondholders. The railway is a belt line 129 miles long around Chicago.

Colonel Edward B. Glasgow, aged 40, of Worcester, Mass., a member of the Massachusetts legislature, shot and killed himself at the home of his brother, William Glasgow, at Elk Park, a Philadelphia suburb.

By the will of the late Right Rev. Robert Codman, bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Maine, bequests aggregated $40,000 are left in trust to St. Luke's cathedral, at Portland, Me.
